1. How ex - cel - lent in all the earth, Lord our Lord is Your name!
2. When I look up un - to the heav'n's which Your own fin - gers framed,
3. For You have made him lit - tle less than the an - gels a - bove,

5

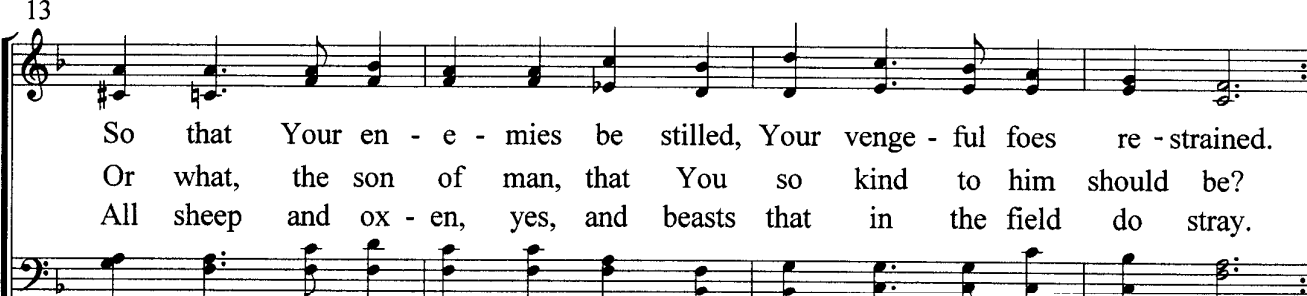

Who has Your glo - ry far ad - vanced a - bove the star - ry frame.
Un - to the moon and to the stars, which were by You Or - dained;
With glo - ry and with dig - ni - ty, with hon - or crowned his head.

9

From mouths of babes and in - fants, Lord, strength by You is or - dained,
Then say I, what is man that You should be mind - ful of him?
Ap - point - ed lord of all Your works, all things un - der his feet:

13

So that Your en - e - mies be stilled, Your venge - ful foes re - strained.
Or what, the son of man, that You so kind to him should be?
All sheep and ox - en, yes, and beasts that in the field do stray.
